LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

On the 7th will be our first meeting of the New Year. As your new Editor, I invite each of you to attend this first meeting to meet and greet your new officers and renew your friendship with all of our members. The first meeting is usually also a good time to talk about what we, as a club, will be doing in the New Year. So let your voice be heard and have a little fun at next week's meeting. Also don't forget to bring a friend! A great time is even greater when you have it with great friends.

On Sunday the Club made its way to the old Pate Museum. Gary Cox headed up the effort. Here are some pics of the trip courtesy of Johnnie Eller.

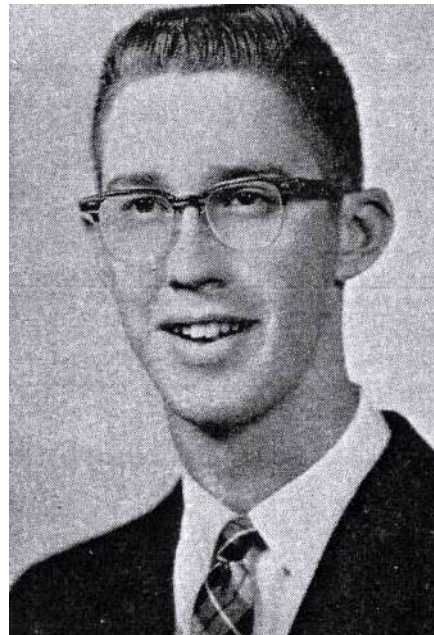

The weather was great and the company was even greater.

There are no Minutes in this Newsletter since there were no meetings in December.

This guy was left over from the old Editor. Did anyone know who this brainy looking guy was? Was there even any guesses? No it's not Lyndon Johnson. This is one of our very own whose name will be announced on January 7th at our first meeting.
